

TOP REASONS why Aon is right for you.

Travel professionals turn to Aon because of our 45+ years of experience providing global liability insurance and services customized to the unique needs of the travel and tour industry.

By working with our clients and association partners, we stay informed about emerging risks, and continue to enhance our policy to provide the broadest coverage available on the market today.

1

Supported by 25+ of the leading Travel & Tour Industry Associations

The vast majority of the premier travel industry organizations trust our program to protect their members.

2

We set the Industry Standard for Policy Forms

Our program offers coverage specifically designed from the ground up for travel business risks and continues to evolve and innovate along with the travel industry itself.

3

Risk Management Pioneers

Offering expertise in the niche area of travel industry law, our tenured team leads the way in risk management education.

4

In-house Underwriting and Claims Handling

In the event of a claim, you can take comfort in knowing that our claims are managed and directed by team members working right next to the same underwriters and customer service professionals you speak to for any type of policy servicing.

5

Backed by the world's premier insurance broker, Aon

You may have originally known us as Berkely, which was acquired by Aon in 1995. Our clients benefit from Aon's vast global insurance carrier network, subject matter experts, and risk management expertise.

Only Aon can deliver all of these benefits to you.
